

Timothy J. Gunderson Promoted to Vice President

UNITED COMMUNITY BANK

United Community Bank President/CEO Mark C. Fisher, announced the promotion of Timothy J. Gunderson to Vice President at United Community Bank's Lake Park and Ocheyedan Offices. Fisher stated, "Tim has made important contributions to the bank and we see the impact of his efforts. Tim will assume the daily management duties at Lake Park and Ocheyedan and continue to be involved in Commercial, Agricultural and Real Estate Lending."

Tim, along with his wife, Jody, reside in Lake Park and have three children. A native of Northwest Iowa, Tim grew up on a farm four miles east of Lake Park. He is a 1992 graduate from Harris-Lake Park Community School and graduated from South Dakota State University in 1997 with his degree in Animal Science/Business emphasis. He joined the Lake Park United Community Bank Office in 2001, as a Commercial/Ag and Real Estate/Consumer Lender and was promoted to Assistant Vice President in 2011. Tim has completed the Iowa Bankers Association Consumer, Commercial and Agricultural Lending Schools along with the IBA Leadership Institute of Banking Program. In 2014, he graduated from the Graduate School of Banking in Madison, Wisconsin. Currently, he serves as a board member and coach for Northwest Iowa Youth Athletic Association and is an advisory board member for the Lake Park Development Corporation.
