

United Community Bank Welcomes Marilyn L. Cravens to Board of Directors

UNITED COMMUNITY BANK

Mark C. Fisher, President/CEO and Board Member of United Community Bank announced the appointment of Marilyn L. Cravens to its Board of Directors. "We are pleased to welcome Marilyn to our Board of Directors. She brings experience and value to further strengthen and diversify our board," said Fisher.

Marilyn is a longtime resident of the area with many links to the communities served by United Community Bank. Raised in the Iowa Great Lakes Area, she currently resides in Sanborn, Iowa, where she is actively involved in the community, serving on various local and church boards. She is currently a director of the Sanborn Savings Bank, located in Sanborn, a position she has held since January of 2003. Because of her association with community banks, Marilyn believes it is important for a bank to be involved in the communities it serves and to be responsive to the needs of its clients.

She joins United Community Bank's current Board of Directors comprised of James P. Cravens, Chairman of the Board, Mark C. Fisher, Thomas W. Clary, Rodney D. Simonson and Steven G. Feld. The directors' wealth of knowledge and experience, coupled with their diverse backgrounds, continue to guide United Community Bank as they maintain their long-standing commitment to the customers and communities they serve.

■ *United Community Bank is a locally owned commercial bank serving the needs of its communities, businesses and citizens with a full range of traditional and innovative financial services, while delivering the highest level of customer service available.
