

Amy Groen Joins United Community Bank

UNITED COMMUNITY BANK

United Community Bank President/CEO Mark C. Fisher, announced Amy Groen has joined UCB as a Compliance Officer, based out of the Milford UCB Office. Amy's primary role will be to research, implement and manage areas of banking laws and regulations for the bank, along with keeping up with new developments and implementing them into the bank's policies and procedures. "Amy is a welcomed addition to our compliance area," stated Fisher. "We have worked hard to build a strong compliance culture at United Community Bank and look forward to further strengthening this commitment with the addition of Amy, for both UCB and our customers."

Prior to joining United Community Bank, Amy worked more than six years in the banking industry with the majority of those years spent in the compliance area. She earned her bachelor's degree in Business Administration/Finance with a minor in accounting from Northwestern College in Orange City.

Amy, along with her husband Ben, and children Jack and Hanna reside in Spirit Lake. "I am happy to be a part of UCB and look forward to being able to contribute to the bank's success," Amy said.
